Eligible, Segment 1 Class (definition)

An eligible class is one that either started or concluded during the months of October 2003, November 2003, December 2003, or January 2004. Thus, an eligible segment 1 class could have started prior to October 1, 2003, as long as it concluded after that date. In addition, if a segment 1 class started on or before January 31, 2004, those students could also be claimed for reimbursement. For students who are being claimed for reimbursement who attended segment 1 at driver training schools, they must also meet the eligibility requirements for reimbursement as outlined in MCL 257.811 (3)
